If you would like to purchase curriculum and pick it up in person, we will need a minimum of 72 hours to process the order. You will still need to place your order online through the Bethel Store. Note: use Bethel Media's address (5090 Caterpillar Road, Redding, CA 96003) and select the option for "store pickup."

After submitting your order, please call Bethel Media's customer service department (530-351-7500) to arrange a pick-up time. ### Q: What are the copyright, trademark, and permission guidelines for using the BSSM Video Curriculum?

We developed the BSSM Video Curriculum to provide leaders with resources to start schools of supernatural ministry. However, each leadership team carries their own unique calling and authority for their region. For this reason, we ask those who use our curriculum to use their own school name and develop their program based on the vision God has given them.

Below is information to help you best utilize the BSSM Video Curriculum. Please understand that the copyright information and terms and agreement apply to the entire contents of the BSSM Video Curriculum. Additionally, the reproduction guidelines were created to ensure that each school is overseen by a strong leadership team who will serve and mentor their students and cultivate a kingdom culture!

We highly recommend that you read each of the sections below thoroughly before purchasing and using the curriculum. This will ensure that you understand each important guideline to properly use the BSSM Video Curriculum.

Terms & Agreement

I understand that the entire contents of the BSSM Administrator's Manual and the BSSM Video Curriculum, including all written and media (any video format) material thereof is copyrighted under the United States and is the property of Bethel Church. Copyright 2007, 2012. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. All text, design, graphics, trademarks, service marks, and trade names, including "Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry" and the acronyms "BSM" and "BSSM" (collectively the "Marks") are proprietary to Bethel Church of Redding, or other respective owners that have been granted permission by Bethel Church of Redding to use such Marks.

I understand that I have permission to indicate that I am "featuring curriculum from the Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry" as part of my school curriculum, but no such trade name can be used in my own school or ministry name. Thus, I understand that without specific permission from Bethel Church of Redding I cannot use their copyrighted materials or trade names.

I agree to not copy or reproduce these materials in any form, except where licenses have been purchased or agreements have been legally signed. I understand that I am allowed to make one (1) copy of the Teacher's Manual videos to use as a "check-out" library resource for students who have missed class. This one set of video copies is to remain the sole possession of the original BSSM Video Curriculum purchaser/ministry; it is not permissible to sell these copies or use them for a "sister" school. ("Sister" schools refer to any school that is planted in connection with your current school.)

Beyond what is outlined above, I understand that I am not able to reproduce, sell or put these materials on the Internet. Bethel Church of Redding or the Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry has legal right to change these terms and conditions without notice, please watch for updates.

Reproduction Permission Guidelines

With the purchase of the curriculum, the school is allowed to make one (1) copy of the curriculum videos that correspond to the Teacher's Manuals to use as a "check-out" library resource for students who have missed class. This one (1) set of video copies is to remain the sole possession of the original BSSM Video Curriculum purchaser/ministry; it is not permissible to sell these copies or use them for a "sister school."

Permission for the "library copy" refers to making a copy of the videos only. We do not grant permission to copy the Lecture Notes for the Teacher's Manuals or Student Manuals. You may share only the original Teacher's Manuals with the school staff. Additional Teacher's Manuals (PDF) or Additional Student Manuals (hard copy or PDF) can be purchased online. The Additional Teacher's Manuals (PDF) are identical to the hard copy Teacher's Manuals, but do not include the videos.

Use of Trademarks

As outlined in the Terms and Agreement, the names "Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry" and the acronyms "BSM" and "BSSM" (collectively the "Marks") are U.S. federally trademarked names and property of Bethel Church of Redding, or other respective owners that have been granted permission by Bethel Church of Redding to use such Marks. In purchasing and using the BSSM Video Curriculum in your school, permission is given to say you are "featuring curriculum from the Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry in Redding, CA" but you cannot use any of the names or acronyms (indicated above) as the title of your ministry or school. The reason for this is that, as you can imagine, schools that are not upholding our core values and beliefs may damage our reputation. Please feel free to use the words "supernatural school of ministry" in your ministry titles without infringing upon the titles mentioned above.

Use of Video Clips

Schools have permission to use 1-3 short clips from the BSSM Curriculum in a video to advertise your school. Please only use clips from our main speakers (Bill Johnson, Kris Vallotton, Danny Silk, Eric Johnson, Dann Farrelly) and not our guest speakers. We also ask that clips are limited to no more than 20-30 seconds each in length. In order to prevent confusion, please also make it very clear in the video that the students will be watching videos from Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry, so that people do not think that our Bethel leaders will be teaching live in your school (unless you invite them as guest speakers).

Years ago, our team did plant a couple affiliate schools. However, after some time, our leadership team realized that our true calling is to help other leaders plant and lead thriving schools.

If your school needs more resources to host a specific leader, we encourage to partner with other schools or churches in your region (e.g. share the costs, promote the event, etc.).

Q. How long is the BSSM Video Curriculum considered valid? Will we receive updates to the curriculum?

Although new revelation about what the Lord is doing may change or grow from year to year, the foundational messages we teach at BSSM have not changed. The core messages in the BSSM Video Curriculum remain the same and are valuable for creating a culture of revival and honor. We do encourage those using our curriculum to attend conferences, participate on the Global Legacy platform, listen to the Bethel Podcasts, and watch BethelTV. These are all great options for receiving consistent, revelatory messages from our leaders.

Q. Is there a payment plan or discount available?

Currently, we do not offer any discounts to purchase the BSSM Video Curriculum, including discounts for ministry or missionary use. We do offer a type of payment plan in that the curriculum can be purchased in sections, rather than as an entire curriculum set. There is a discount for purchasing the curriculum as an entire set (a savings of $491). However, most individuals purchase the curriculum in sections because it is more feasible for their budgets. Most schools are able to recover the full cost of the curriculum with an enrollment of 7-15 students (i.e. use funds from students' tuition payments).

Q. What are some other resources we can use if we are unable to purchase the BSSM Video Curriculum at this time?

Individual Products

Purchase individual products from Bill Johnson, Kris Vallotton, Danny Silk, and others featured in the BSSM Video Curriculum. Their books, DVDs, and CDs on revival, the supernatural, and developing a culture of honor can be purchased through the Bethel Store.
