Love that Wins

In this session, Kris Vallotton discusses the definition of God's true love and how this love manifests in the world in ways that go beyond your understanding.

A New Apostolic Season

In this session, Kris Vallotton begins his discussion on denominationalism vs apostleships. It is your job to be an apostle and equip people, not to move in denominationalism and gather people.

Moving in Apostleship, Part One

In this session, Kris Vallotton begins teaching on moving away from denominationalism and into apostleships. He discusses the roles of apostles to change culture and how the role of an apostle can be distinguished from the role of a pastor.

Moving in Apostleship, Part Two

In this session, Kris Vallotton adds the finishing thoughts to his message, “Moving into Apostleship, Part One.” He talks about the role of an apostle to build structures that empower people as saints instead of leading them as though they were still sinners under the old covenant. At the end of this message Kris opens the session up for a time of Q&A.

More Than Your Gifting

In this session, Bill Johnson talks about the journey of growing and exploring your potential in the kingdom of God. Being aware of your gifts is important, but if you limit yourself to what you are thinking, you miss out on the best part of life. Additionally, the speaker answers unrelated questions from the crowd.

Practical Keys to Sharing the Gospel

In this session, Chris Overstreet shares practical keys to sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He finishes his message with ten approaches to share Jesus with others.

January 2021 Releases

Passion for the Kingdom

Michael Koulianos from Jesus Image speaks about the passion required to follow Jesus. Power has nothing to do with the volume of your voice, but has to do with the weight of your voice.

Job, Part One

Dann Farrelly goes into the theology found in the book of Job. He goes into depth about Job's life and the context of culture in Job's lifetime.

Job, Part Two

In this session, Dann Farrelly continues his discussion on the Book of Job and the season of suffering Job went through. The Book of Job was just a season in his life, it was not his lifetime.

The Wisdom Texts
