Book Overview

To have found God and still to pursue Him is a paradox of love, scorned indeed by the too-easily-satisfied religious person, but justified in happy experience by the children of the burning heart. Saint Bernard of Clairvaux stated this holy paradox in a musical four-line poem that will be instantly understood by every worshipping soul:

We taste Thee, O Thou Living Bread,
And long to feast upon Thee still:
We drink of Thee, the Fountainhead
And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.

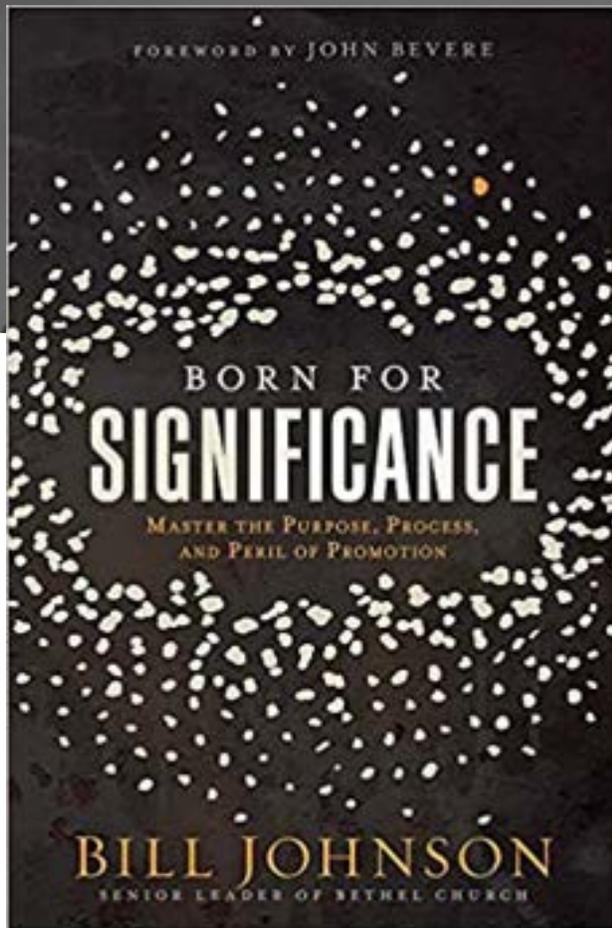

Come near to the holy men and women of the past and you will soon feel the heat of their desire after God. Let A. W. Tozer's pursuit of God spur you also into a genuine hunger and thirst to truly know God.

Second Year Book Report: The Pursuit of God

Date Due: _____

ASSIGNMENT:

Write an original report of what you've gathered from the assigned book. Make sure the essence of what you're writing covers, but is not limited to:

- What the author is saying
- Why the author is saying it
- How and why you will apply it to your life

Please engage thoughtfully and meaningfully with the information you've read. We expect you to dig in and wrestle with the content from each book. Reflect on what you've learned, how the book impacted you, what questions have come up in you while reading, and conclusions you're coming to in light of the material. Write what you've uncovered.

FORMAT:

700-900 words, 1.5 spacing, stapled, with 12-point font. Please include a cover page with your title, full name, revival group pastor, intern and date. Word count is required at the bottom of the last page.

QUESTIONS TO PONDER:

The following questions are optional. They are intended to stir your thoughts for writing but are not required in your material.

- How did reading this book stir your heart toward God?
- How do you cultivate a life that hungers and thirsts after the Lord? Why is this important?
- It is almost impossible to read Tozer and not begin to feel a deep thirst for the things of the Lord. What do you think you should do to steward a personal response to God's prompting?
- Tozer makes pursuing God such a deep, personal and intimate exchange of hearts. Did this challenge you in any way?

Please describe.

- How do you think we take hold of the “more” of the Lord while here on earth?
- Tozer writes with unique depth and intellect, requiring the heart, mind, and spirit to be present as you read. Did his approach challenge or inspire you in any way? Please describe.

NOTE: THERE IS NO NEED TO PRINT OR INCLUDE THIS SHEET WITH YOUR REPORT.
